Chapter 1 by electroner

As I sit in my good as I feel I was wrong if I could change what I was I would love if I can do something but not because it's my last day.

But what I can do is tell my adventures

Let's start: I was a kid with a dream but I was always in the shadow of others my dream was to be a hero adventurous to travel by kingdoms and tell my adventures to my grandchildren wanted to be somebody important but I always said it was not rational what I wanted to make my life to study and get a job but I'm not like that but if I get to die never wanted to die alone without anyone knowing what happened to you or if you pass something my motto was "never'll die without a company De my Loved Ones "because I want to fight for my family my friends every living defend defender.Hacer you can not run the valiente.vencer the strong draw strength from where I do not have to carry the burden that I'm not going to never to leave
